

Lyme in Delaware

The Delmarva Peninsula is endemic for Lyme disease. In 2014, the Delaware Lyme Disease Prevention Task Force was established to study and make recommendations to state and local leaders on how the First State should combat Borrelia burgdorferi and other tick-borne diseases such as: Bartonella, Anaplasma, Borellia miyamotoi, and Babesia.

lymestats.org